

SYNOPSIS

THE PERFECT PET

The Perfect Pet is a new book about a visit to Happy Farm, where readers will find one-of-a-kind animals with unique talents and personalities.

The Perfect Pet will introduce you to a host of whimsical characters like Charlie the Cheetah, Finley the Llama from Old Yokohama, Wally the Whale and their friends. Each page is wonderfully illustrated with bright vivid colors that portray each unique persona.

Readers will have an enjoyable adventure that leads to a meaningful lesson about choosing a pet that will be dear to the heart.

Authors

The Perfect Pet is co-authored by Donald Cantor and his son Michael Cantor. Donald created imaginative bedtime stories told to his children as they were growing up. Now an adult his son Michael has assisted Donald in recapturing this favorite tale in a poetic rhyme that is enjoyable for children ages 3 and up.

Author Don Cantor lives in West Hartford, Connecticut with his two dogs Murphy & Maisy. Co-Author (and son) Michael Cantor lives in Durham, North Carolina with his dog Kali.

Illustrator

The Perfect Pet is illustrated by Martin E. McDonald an artist and animator from Waltham, Massachusetts. Martin started drawing at age 5 years after seeing Don Bluth's "The Land Before Time" and "The Rats of Nimh," when he was a little older.

"I've always drawn and always made sure to watch as many cartoons as I could and played plenty of video games all the way up to the present day,"

- McDonald.

McDonald is a 2007 graduate of Massachusetts College of Art and Design with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Animation Design. He hopes to be a bigger illustrator and animator sometime in the near future.
